FINANCES AND MARKETS

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
NEW YORK, July 8.—Apart from last Saturday's severe contraction of excess reserves by local banks and more definite intimations concerning new capital requirements by railroads and industrial corporations, events over the week end offered no explanation for today's dull and heavy stock market.
With scarcely an exception, leading shares were under persistent pressure, the selling again focusing about U. S. Steel which suffered an extreme recession of 2 1/2 points. Kindred issues yielded sympathetically, and rails also were reactionary, dividend payers losing 1 to 1 1/2. Setbacks of 1 to 2 1/2 were registered for metals and oils.
Lowest quotations were registered in the last hour, but towards the close specialties rallied, 1 to 2 points, and equipment, including U. S. Steel and Republic Iron recovered substantial fractions. Sales amounted to 410,000 shares.
Traffic at western and far western points diminished during the past week but the general business situation was more favorable on further solution of war problems.
Liberty bonds were heavier. Other issues easing slightly. Total sales (par value) aggregated $4,175,000. U. S. bonds (old issues) were unchanged on call.

GRAIN

CHICAGO, July 8.—Action on congress looking to higher prices on wheat stimulated an advance in the value of corn today, notwithstanding a nouncement of a veto forthcoming from President Wilson. The market, however, closed unsettled, 3c net lower to 1 1/2c up, with August $1.54 to $1.55 1/2 and September $1.55 1/2. Oats finished 1/2c to 3/4c advance, and provisions varied from 25c down to a rise of 20c.

Commission house buying of corn was strongly in evidence throughout the day except just before the close, when sales to realize profits, became the rule.

Provisions averaged higher owing to a falling off in receipts of hogs and because of large exports. Most of the demand, though, came from shorts.

Corn—August, $1.54 1/2; September, $1.55 1/2.
Oats—August, 70c; September, 69 1/2c.
Pork—July, $44.20; September, $45.
Lard—July, $26.25; September, $26.75.

Ribs—August, $24.05; September, $24.60.

Cattle—Receipts 16,000; best beef steers fully steady; cows, bulls and calves steady; heifers dull; packers and feeders, $16.50 to $17.00; good choice and prime, $16.50 to $18.00; common and medium, $16.50 to $18.00; butcher stock, cows and heifers, $7.85 to $14.50; canners and cutters, $6.85 to $7.85; stockers and feeders, good, choice and fancy, $10.40 to $13.00; common and medium, $8 to $10.40; veal calves, good and choice, $16.00 to $16.75.
